

Dean of Continuing Education and Workforce Development

Dean of Continuing Education and Workforce Development, NJ

The Dean of Continuing Education and Workforce Development must be an accomplished, entrepreneurial academic leader with a high level of political acumen and experience in the community college sector. A sophisticated, experienced negotiator who can maneuver within a complex service area including various cities and municipalities. S/he will oversee the development, implementation, and expansion of non-credit programs and services to meet the needs of workforce development and continuing education students. The Dean will serve as a senior administrative and supervisory officer within the Academic Affairs Division and provide strategic vision and leadership to the following departments:

- Continuing and Adult Education
- The Center for Business and Industry (Workforce Development)
- Evening/Weekend/Off-site Programs
- The landmark Culinary Conference Center

This is a leadership role within Academic Affairs in which the candidate will be working with colleagues at both departmental and institutional levels to effectively strengthen their programs and increase scope, quality and enrollments. The Dean will represent the College with key constituents, including county agencies, political groups, corporate workforce clients and others.

The College enrolls more than 9,400 students, 97% of whom are seeking degrees. The College now ranks as the eighth largest community college in New Jersey. The College services the residents and businesses of Hudson County, one of the most densely populated and ethnically diverse areas of America.

Target Date: December 8, 2017
