

Accelerate Your Path to Graduation Prior Learning Assessments

Earning qualifying scores on prior learning assessments such as College Board's College Level Examination Program (CLEP) and NYU's Language Proficiency Exams can help you save time and money on your way to a degree by earning credit for what you already know.

CLEP and NYU Language Proficiency exams test mastery of college-level material acquired in a variety of ways — through general academic instructions, significant independent study or extracurricular work.

Who earns college credit with prior learning assessments?

- High School/ Home-schooled students
- Adult students/Professionals
- Military service members
- Students fluent in other languages
- International students

HCCC students may be awarded up to 30 credits toward a degree and 15 credits toward a certificate for the prior education experience in several ways: Transfer Credit, CLEP, Advanced Placement, NYU Foreign Language Proficiency Tests, Work/Life Portfolio Assessment, Military courses, and Credit by Examination. The College does not guarantee the transferability to other institutions of credit earned in these ways.

For a list of available exams and eligibility rules, please see the back of this flyer.

For more information, please contact the Testing Center at testing@hccc.edu or (201) 360-4190.
